

GLACE BAY MINOR HOCKEY

HOCKEY HALL OF FAME

The Glace Bay Minor Hockey Hall of Fame strives to recognize and honor the names and deeds of those whose athletic achievement(s) or contribution has brought fame, honor and recognition to Glace Bay Minor Hockey.

Mission statement: To honor athletes, teams, coaches/builders from Glace Bay (and surrounding areas) for their outstanding contribution or achievement in the sport of hockey.

ELIGIBILITY FOR INDUCTION

- A. Election is restricted to athletes, teams, coaches/builders who have made a significant contribution to hockey in the town of Glace Bay.
- B. All athletes, teams, and coaches/builders must be nominated, in order to be considered for induction, using the GBMH Hall of Fame Nomination form.
- C. The number of inductees to be elected annually shall be determined by the Glace Bay Minor Hockey Board of Directors, but shall not exceed three (3) inductees in any given year. It is not necessary to select an inductee from each category in any given year.

HALL OF FAME SELECTION PROCESS

The three main categories for the Hall of Fame: athlete, team, coach/builder

- 1. The nomination deadline shall be December 1st of each year.
- 2. Any individual or association may submit a nomination.
- 3. A review of all nominations will be completed in January, successful nominees will be contacted in January and the Awards Ceremony will be held in March.
- 4. Successful nominees will require a 5×7 head and shoulder photograph of the nominee or team photo. (Photographs will not be returned.)
- 5. Completed nomination forms must be submitted (in person, email or mail) to the Glace Bay Minor Hockey office on or before December 1st of each year.

Categories:

ATHLETE

- An athlete shall be deemed to be one who has demonstrated character, sportsmanship and integrity, as well as outstanding hockey skill and ability. An athlete to be considered for induction should have excelled in the sport of hockey in competition against his or her peer athletes.
- The nominee must have attained excellence at a Regional, Provincial, National or International level.
- The nominee must have performed in a manner to bring special honour and recognition to Glace Bay Minor Hockey.

TEAM

- Glace Bay (and surrounding area) hockey teams winning a Regional, Provincial, Maritime/Atlantic, National, or World Championship Open National, or reaching the ultimate level of achievement in their sport are eligible for induction into the Glace Bay Minor Hockey Hall of Fame.
- Teams are selected for their achievements in one year, not an era.

COACH/BUILDER

Builders are defined as officials, administrators, media personnel, coaches, and trainers, and others whose work contributions to Glace Bay Minor Hockey over an extended period of time has been outstanding:

- in the organization of competitions, events, and facility development;
- in achieving a high degree of success in coaching or officiating;
- in providing services to our sport of a consistently high level;
- in developing and supporting programs related to our sport;

AWARDS

A commemoration ceremony will take place annually in March. Inductees will be recognized during this ceremony and a photo with a description of their achievements will be revealed and enshrined on the Wall of Fame at the Glace Bay Miner's Forum.

WAITING PERIOD

- Athletes and teams shall generally not be inducted for at least three (3) years after they have finished competing (retired). Exceptions may be approved by the Board of Directors in the case of success at the Olympics (or similar international competitions or World Championships), or in the case of terminal illness or death.
- The three year term would not generally apply to Coach/Builders or Community Sport Builders.
- Teams composed of the same personnel must wait Five (5) years before they are eligible for induction.
- If the person or team is not inducted into the Glace Bay Minor Hockey Hall of Fame when they are first nominated, their name(s) will be put forward for up to two years after the person or team has been nominated. If, after this period, the person or team has not been inducted, then the name(s) goes into dormancy for at least two years. After this period of time, the person or team can be nominated again.

Each submission should include an outline of the athlete's, builder's, or team's major accomplishments. The outline must be two (2) pages or less, using a minimum 12-point font. This outline should be in point form and can include any or all of the following:

- Years of commitment
- Major accomplishments
- Major Awards
- Relevant Statistics
- Championships
