

'First Liners'

Paul Kelley is a Canadian artist born in Nova Scotia. Paul studied at Mount Allison University in Sackville, New Brunswick. Paul's art is a labour of love with each realistic painting taking hundreds of hours of work. 'Mates' is his first artistic venture into the world of athletics. A renowned Nova Scotia artist paying tribute to three renowned Nova Scotian hockey players is truly an example of the breadth of our shared culture. All proceeds from the sale of 'Mates' will go to The Bob Boucher Hockey Assistance Fund which is a non-profit organization that is dedicated to developing the game of hockey and its players. Each purchase will further enable the BBHAF to continue and expand its efforts.

To learn more about Paul Kelley:

Mates

To learn more about the BBHAF:

COPY

Three players that help define a generation of hockey, both locally and around the world. Brad, arguably one of the greatest players of all time. Brad, easily a first ballot hall of famer and famously, one of the best playoff performers the league has ever seen. Nathan, a perennial superstar as one the most dynamic leaders and dominant players of this, arguably the most talented generation to ever play the game. This art piece was commissioned to show our pride in that accomplishment, while also recognizing that they have shared a spotlight showing pride, humility and honour in their victories and shining a light on their fellow competitors for their accomplishments when warranted. Thanks Mates.